Meet the new HARMANN STUDIOS Models

THIS IS YOUR YEAR.

The MODEL twenty18 shoot is charged with a mix of NEW YORK EDGE and LA ATTITUDE. This shoot brings high energy and high fashion with comfort and confidence.

Nicole
FOND DU LAC

My mission in life is NOT MERELY TO SURVIVE, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor, and some style.

Maya Angelou

Rocking ripped skinny jeans and a bomber jacket, Nicole was a natural behind the camera. Shy, yet determined, she brought her sassy side to her Urban Chic model shoot giving us a mix of fierce glam and infectious smiles. Nicole is super active within her school contributing to the track and cross country teams, being a member of the Student Council, and helping new students adjust through the Ignition Mentoring Program. Hmm... shy? Well maybe, but definitely goal oriented! She's excited for high school to end so she can pursue a sports psychology degree in college and maybe run track and field.

Brookelynn

ASHWAUBENON

A real natural, Brookelynn brought her A game to her Urban Chic model shoot sporting a simple graphic tee and bold burgundy Matine hat. Sweet, with a little bit of sass, Brookelynn gave us the perfect mix of attitude and elegance. When she's not in school, you might find her browsing the racks at Francesca's or Apricot Lane wearing this year's hottest styles. Brookelynn is definitely a city girl and loves hanging out at Green Bay's city deck. Although she has some serious college plans, what excites her most about this year (besides modeling like a pro for Harmann Studios) is ruling the school as a senior.

Jordanne

BAY PORT

A beautiful blend of the arts and activity, Jordanne brought cool and casual to her Urban Chic look with a cozy sweater and killer combat boots. An enthusiastic go-getter, she is part of the Bay Port tennis team, the orchestra, an active member of the youth group at her church, and an avid volunteer. Always carrying a bit of wanderlust, Jordanne has a passion for exploration which has brought her on some impressive adventures to Thailand. She's excited to make the most out of her last year of high school before pursuing a career in speech pathology or elementary education.

Natalie

FOND DU LAC

Natalie slayed the Urban Chic look in a flannel and ripped skinnies. A champion in front of the camera and on the field, you'll have to look fast if you want to catch Natalie running her way to victory as a track and cross country star. Always on the go, she loves shopping at American Eagle to compliment her soft edge and floral charm. A natural in flannel, Natalie rocks the more comfortable side of Urban Chic while hiking or camping. But she's not all play, she's definite go-getter as a CNA and part of a Project Lead the Way course for her senior year.

Caitlin

SOUTHWEST

Kicking it in white converse, Caitlin charmed us with her mix of casual boho and subtle sporty look. A force both on the softball field and in the classroom, Caitlin really knocked one out of the park as the winner of the National History Day Labor Award. She loves to read and travel so all she needs is a caffeine charged frappe, a good book, and she is ready to take on the world in an Indian-inspired kimono. As a lover of the outdoors, Caitlin brings her passion for nature into her volunteer work at the Green Bay Botanical Garden and hopes to be an intern once she turns 18.

Laney
ASHWAUBENON

Laney brought a sweet rocker edge to the Urban Chic look dressed up in an edgy bomber jacket, dark skinnies, and some classic converse. A total fashionista, she shops the latest trends from the racks at Old Navy, American Eagle and Rue 21. A passionate dancer, Laney is excited to work with Harmann Studios to capture some killer dance shots. Although she's happy to be graduating high school, she is far from done with school as she has big plans of going to med school to be a general practitioner or surgeon.

Olivia
SOUTHWEST

Dressed in a simple shift dress and classic denim button-up, Olivia gave her Urban Chic photo shoot an everyday, Urban style. Many days you'll find Olivia hanging out with friends or participating in Oneida community events. Mixing cultural and traditional Oneida styles with modern fashion, her love for her culture shined through in her senior session. She may be a self-proclaimed "shy girl," but her style screams trend-setter as she rocks her senior year in the trendiest styles from Charlotte Russe. Olivia has big plans and a bright future ahead of her as she has plans to go to college to get a Master's Degree, but she's not ready to give up her high school days just yet as she is most excited to attend the senior ball.
