Interior Designer Kendall Wilkinson brings her refined aesthetic and exquisite eye for color to fabric

FOR HER FIRST FABRIC COLLECTION Bay area native Kendall Wilkinson was inspired by the diverse natural beauty that surrounds her in San Francisco. From the hills of Napa, the reflection of the iconic bay and the “Gold Coast” of the grand homes on Broadway. The fabrics work well with the California lifestyle of bringing the outdoors inside. Wilkinson has installed the fabrics in her own home, she said “they work well for indoor and outdoor, which is so important given my two tween boys and our dog, Biscuit. www.kendallwilkinson.com/fabric
