The Center for Visual Artists (CVA) is a non-profit organization that supports emerging artists of all ages through educational programs, exhibition opportunities, and community outreach.

(336) 333-7475 or info@greensboroart.org
www.greensboroart.org

Every year, CVA serves Greensboro:

- Over 500 summer camp families
- Over 900 local artists and makers
- Over 3,300 art gallery visitors

Through education, exhibition, and outreach programs, the CVA:

- Creates opportunities for local artists to develop their talents and exhibit their work.
- Provides arts-based educational opportunities for aspiring and professional artists of all ages and abilities.
- Engages Greensboro's diverse community via visual art offerings that are approachable, accessible, and affordable.
- Enables individuals at all skill levels to engage in and experience the arts.
- Partners with other organizations to ensure the arts are available for special populations, public school children, and others.

The CVA is a 501(c)(3) visual art non-profit organization. We depend on the support of donors, grantors, and other supporters in the Greensboro community, without whom our efforts to support the vibrant and varied art scene in our area would not be possible.
