

What's new in the showrooms—fabrics, furnishings, and fabulous finds

1 Ashanti is one of a dozen spunky 1980s prints recently reissued in fabric and wall covering by Kirk Brummel through Brunswick & Fils. Call 800-538-1880; brunswick.com. 2 Like all of Soane's furnishings, the Rout Stool is custom made; you choose the wood, finish, and upholstery. It's shown here in beech, painted Cook's Blue with a linen seat. Call John Rosselli, 212-593-2060. 3 The Beaugency collection of tassels and tie-backs by Houles pairs classic shapes with unexpected hues, such as pistachio and fuchsia. Call 212-935-3900; houles.com. 4 The season's prettiest seashell tones grace textile designer Lori Weitzner's first trim collection, from the pearl-embellished Opaline to Laurel, a delicate beaded fringe. Call Samuel & Sons, 212-704-8000. 5 The geometric lines of Aesthetic's mahogany "X" armchair pay homage to the bold artistry of the Vienna Secession. Visit aestheticdecor.com. 6 Lilly, Clarence House's newest outdoor fabric, is available in four punchy colors, plus two neutral tones. Visit clarencehouse.com. 7 Place Textiles debuts the California collection of ultradurable textured fabrics, including Petaluma, which comes in a dozen hues. Call 212-255-7978. 8 Fashion designer Nanette Lepore's whimsical peacock-feather rug for the Doris Leslie Blau Gallery gets its subtle sheen from woven banana-leaf fibers that are saturated with nontoxic dyes.
